

Privacy Policy

In the following paragraphs, you will find the description of the administrative methods of the website www.eraspares.com concerning the processing of personal data of those users who look up the present website and who use the web services relative to it.

The present informative report makes exclusively reference to the website www.eraspares.com and it does not refer to any other website that can possibly be consulted by the users through the links.

All personal data of the subjects (natural and / or legal persons) who, in various capacities, access to the services offered by the sites, will be processed by Era S.p.A., Data Controller, according to the regulation in force, and in any case, to the necessary confidentiality.

The optional and voluntary sending of e-mail messages to the addresses indicated on the website, implies the capture of the sender's address as well as the capture of other personal data entered in the message in order to meet the requirements. The access to particular services or the answer to determinate request can be subordinated to the entering of personal data in the provided application forms (coupon); in this case, the capture of the required data is necessary for the execution of all operations in the sake of the subject.

The refusal to confer some data may imply the impossibility of administrating the service. In any case, on filling in the coupon, you will be able to consult the specific informative report related to the required service.

With regard to the indicated purposes, the processing of personal data is carried out through manual, computerized and telematic tools with logics strictly connected to the purposes themselves and, in any case, to guarantee the security and confidentiality of the data within the Code.

In their usual course of action, the computer systems and the software procedures, used for the administration of the website, acquire some personal data whose transmission is implicit in the use of the internet communication protocols.

The aforesaid pieces of information are not collected in order to be associated with identified data subject, but due to their own nature, they could permit to identify the users, through processing and association with data held by third parties.

IP addresses or the names on domain of the computers used by the users who connect to the website, URI (Uniform Resource Identifier) notation addresses of the required resources, the time of the request, the method used to submit the request to the server, the dimension of the file obtained in answer, the numerical code showing the status of the answer provided by the server (success, error, etc.) and other parameters related to the operating system and the computer environment of the user fall into this category of data. These data are exclusively used to obtain anonymous statistical information concerning the use of the website and to check their correct functioning. They are stored for the period of time established by the related regulations. The data might be used in order to verify the responsibility in case of hypothetical computer crimes to the detriment of the website.

Cookies (short files of text stored on a user's computer by their web browser in order to manage additional features, necessary for a complete fruition of the website and / or to track the entries into its different pages) will be used exclusively to monitor the effectiveness of the online presence of the website and to point out the pages visited with higher frequency; cookies will never be used to obtain personal data, such as names or e-mail addresses.

The pieces of information collected through cookies are aggregated anonymously. They have a statistical purpose. For instance, they verify the number of contacts of the website in a determinate period of time or the frequency of the entries of the visited pages or the track used in the visited pages.

If you do not want to receive cookies, we kindly ask you to set up your browser opportunely. You will find the directions necessary for this purpose in the documentation related to your browser.

Employees and / or collaborators of the Data Controller, as persons in charge of the processing, and the persons themselves in charge of the processing could be acquainted with your data; the data will not be disclosed or communicated to Third Person, unless it is provided for the informative report and / or the law and, in any case, using methods within it.

You will be able to apply to the Privacy Service, at the data controller, to verify your own data and to complete, update or to rectify them and / or to exercise the other rights under the Art. 7 of the Code.

The data controller is ERA S.p.A. with head office in Via Santi 15 - Reg. Sanda Vadò - 10024 Moncalieri (To). The complete and up to date list of the persons in charge is available on the website indicated.

Subject: Informative report under Article 13 D.Lgs 196/03 “Code of protection of personal data”

To the Suppliers

Premise

Further to the discipline dictated by the D. Lgs. 196/03 “Code of protection of personal data” (hereafter “Code”), we shall provide the information concerning the use, made by the company itself, of the personal data acquired with regard to the intervening contractual relations with your Company or to those contractual relations which could be established in the future.

Source of personal data

The data in our possession, acquired in regard to the contractual relations, are directly collected at the data subject. All the collected data will be processed according to the regulation in force, and in any case, to the necessary confidentiality.

Purpose of the processing

The collection, that is the processing of personal data, has the exclusive purpose of providing the execution related to the completion of the economic activity of our company in an appropriate way, and in particular for:

- the fulfilment of contractual obligations;
- the execution of specific requests by the data subject before the stipulation of the contract;
- the fulfilment and execution of the obligations provided for in laws, rules and community rules;
- the fulfilment of fiscal and accounting obligations;
- managerial, operational and reliability control requirements;
- management of the question of law.

Processing methods

With regard to the indicated purposes, the processing of personal data is carried out through manual, computerized and telematic tools with logics strictly connected to the purposes and, in any case, to guarantee the security and confidentiality of the data within the cited Code.

Nature of the collection

With the purpose of agreement and completion of the contractual relation, the collection of the personal data has also a mandatory nature, since the legal and fiscal execution must be carried out. The refusal to provide these data will imply the impossibility of establishing working relations with the company.

Communication and disclosure

The personal data and their relative processing will be communicated to other companies in order to carry out economic activities (commercial, executive, management of the informative systems, insurance, bank intermediation or simply intermediation, factoring, management of the shipping, mail insertion and forwarding of correspondence) or to discharge the rule of law (chartered accountants and lawyers offices). The data will not be divulged. The following categories of subjects, in charge of the processing, could be acquainted with your data: President, Chief Executive Officer, Commercial Manager, Human Resources Office, Accounting Department, Warehouse Manager, IT Department, Operating and People in charge of the Warehouse, Sales Agents, Engineering Department.

Rights of the person concerned

The data subject will be able to apply to the Privacy Service, at the data controller of the processing, to verify his own data and to complete, update or to rectify them and / or to exercise the other rights under the Art. 7 of the Code (in the attachment).
